

LAST EDITION.

DISAPPOINTED IN CLEVELAND.

Democratic Leaders Feel Badly Over the President's Snub to the State Ticket.

FLOWER TO STUMP THE STATE

Will Make Short Speeches from a Private Car in Many Towns and Villages.

SENATOR HILL HAS LEFT TOWN.

Vice-President Stevenson Calls at Headquarters and Has a Conference with Thacher.

There were three subjects which caused considerable discussion at Democratic State headquarters this morning. First, the extraordinary work that Senator Hill is doing, making one, two and sometimes three speeches every day. Second, the visit of President Cleveland to this city and the snub of Mr. Hill and the whole State ticket; and, thirdly, the fact that Gov. Rowell P. Flower has announced his intention to work tooth and nail for the Democratic State ticket from now on until election.

Every one around headquarters is disappointed at Mr. Cleveland's conduct. Until the last moment word of some kind was looked for from him. In fact, even after he had taken his departure, it was hoped that he had forwarded a letter, endorsing the State ticket. But the letter never came.

The Senator himself affects to treat the matter with sublime indifference. He says he is satisfied that many of Mr. Cleveland's friends are out for him, and his lieutenant, Mr. Hill, is also out for him. He says he is not at all concerned about the result of the election, and that he will do his best to win it.

“We do not worry very much about Mr. Cleveland,” said Mr. Thacher, secretary to Mr. Thacher, this morning. “We are going along in our own way, and we are not at all concerned about the result of the election. We are going to do our best, and we are going to win it.”

“The managers seem to think that the presence here and active co-operation of Vice-President Stevenson is a great help to the ticket,” said Mr. Thacher. “He is a great man, and he is a great help to the ticket. He is a great man, and he is a great help to the ticket.”

“The plan as outlined is that he will hire a special train to go through the State, and he will make a number of speeches from a private car. He will make a number of speeches from a private car. He will make a number of speeches from a private car.”

“He will stop at every station, and he will make a number of speeches from a private car. He will stop at every station, and he will make a number of speeches from a private car. He will stop at every station, and he will make a number of speeches from a private car.”

“He will stop at every station, and he will make a number of speeches from a private car. He will stop at every station, and he will make a number of speeches from a private car. He will stop at every station, and he will make a number of speeches from a private car.”

DE LOGEROT TO FIGHT

The Marquis of Croisie Will Resist Extradition from Newport.

Breaks Down and Wept When Arraigned on a Bench Warrant.

He is Indicted Perjury in This Insolvency Testimony.

George de Logerot, the Marquis of Croisie, whose financial misadventures were a town topic a year ago, has been arrested at Newport upon a warrant drawn from a New York City court. It appears that the commercial acrobatics performed in settling his very much involved affairs have taken a criminal turn, and he is to be called to account in General Sessions, as well as in the civil courts.

The New York policeman who served it on the Marquis found him in a state of great distress, and he wept when he was arraigned on a bench warrant. He is indicted perjury in this insolvency testimony.

Logerot conducted the apartment house at Fifth Avenue and the Hotel de Croisie at Newport. He was indicted for perjury in his testimony in the insolvency proceedings. He was indicted for perjury in his testimony in the insolvency proceedings.

“Notwithstanding his apparent affluence,” the Marquis told me that he was ruined, and did not have his car fare back to New York.

“He was indicted for perjury in his testimony in the insolvency proceedings. He was indicted for perjury in his testimony in the insolvency proceedings. He was indicted for perjury in his testimony in the insolvency proceedings.”

CHINAMEN RAN AWAY

Story of the Japanese Victory of Thursday on the Yalu.

Anxiety to Take Moukden Before the Mikado's Birthday.

Health and Spirits of Japan's Invading Army Excellent.

(By Associated Press.)
YOKOHAMA, Oct. 25.—Later despatches from the Yalu River show that in the battle fought yesterday between the Chinese and Japanese 3,500 Chinese troops of all arms were utterly routed. CHEMULPOO, Korea, Oct. 25.—Despatches received here from Wiju dated midnight, give additional details of the battle fought between the Chinese and Japanese across the Yalu River.

Gen. Nodzu, the Japanese Chief of Staff, it appears, succeeded in getting the main body of the Japanese army across the Yalu River without mishap before daylight on Thursday. Then Col. Sato was sent forward at the head of a flying column on a reconnoitering expedition and he discovered the enemy occupying a fortified position near the village of Fushang on the right bank of the Yalu.

In spite of the fact that he had no artillery at his disposal, Col. Sato immediately commenced an attack upon the Chinese and a fierce fight followed. The Chinese fought desperately and stubbornly. The attack began at 10 o'clock in the morning and lasted until noon, when the Chinese began wavering, broke and retreated in great disorder, falling back upon Kullenchen.

The troops commanded by Col. Sato, after the Chinese had retired, set to work upon the demolition of the fortifications of Fushang. Inside the fortifications they found 200 Chinese dead. The Japanese also captured a number of prisoners, among whom was a Chinese officer, who stated that the position was held by eighteen battalions of Chinese troops.

The Japanese, escorting their prisoners, then marched in the direction of Gen. Nodzu's main body, with the intention of rejoining it.

The number of Chinese wounded is not known. The Japanese lost five officers and ninety men killed and wounded.

Later despatches said that the Chinese outposts were falling back upon Kullenchen, where it is expected that the Chinese really determined stand of the Chinese in Manchuria will be made.

It is understood that Field Marshal Yamagata's plans are completed, and very detail for inflicting what he hopes will turn out to be a crushing blow upon the Chinese. Several columns of Japanese troops are acting in concert in a manner adopted by the Japanese commander at the battle of Fushang, and it is expected that they will deliver a simultaneous attack upon the Chinese position. If the Japanese Field Marshal's plans are carried out, it is probable that the network of the Chinese position by midnight on Saturday, thus enabling the Japanese to proceed to the attack at dawn on Sunday.

Some doubts are expressed among the Japanese commanders as to the reported strength of the Chinese position at Kullenchen, and Gen. Nodzu is said not to be quite certain himself, although spies and prisoners have furnished various reports on the subject.

It is reported that the Chinese batteries at Kullenchen have been increased from three to eleven, but on the other hand rumor has it that it is extremely doubtful whether all these batteries are fully armed.

All reports join in saying that the esprit de corps and health of the Japanese troops is excellent, and it is said to be the universal ambition of all classes of the service to capture Moukden before the birthday of the Emperor of Japan, which occurs on Nov. 2.

CZAR MUCH BETTER.

He Breakfasted with Appetite and Energy To-Day.

It is Understood that He Will Now Go to Corfu.

Wilhelm to Attend Special Prayers for Alexander's Recovery.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Oct. 25.—Despatches received at the Russian Embassy here this morning, from Livadia, say that the Czar is much better, and that he breakfasted with appetite and energy.

A despatch to the Chronicle from St. Petersburg says that every military member of the Imperial family is decidedly for peace. The Czar-witch has shown an earnest desire in this direction. The despatch adds that the usual Winter gaieties will be impossible. Retail trade is dull.

PLYMOUTH, Eng., Oct. 25.—The Russian Imperial yacht, Pole Star, has left this port for Livadia, where it is understood she will take the Czar and the Imperial family on board and carry them to Corfu.

BERLIN, Oct. 25.—A special service, at which prayers will be offered for the recovery of the Czar, will be held this afternoon at the chapel of the Russian Embassy here. Emperor William has announced his intention of attending this service, and has commanded the presence of the royal Princes, the aide-de-camp, the general commanders of regiments, the Berlin garrison staff and the officers of the Alexander regiments.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 25.—The following bulletin was issued at 11 o'clock this morning:

“The Czar slept fairly well last night, and his appetite this morning is good. There are no somnolent or convulsive symptoms. The oedema has increased.”

This bulletin is signed in the regular manner by the physicians in attendance.

REGISTRATION OFFICE

MR. HILL—Hi, There, Mister, Haven't You Forgotten Something?

ENDED HIS AGONY.

Dying Man Stabbed Himself in the Abdomen.

Haight Was Tortured by Asthma and Kidney Disease.

STEAMER ENSKAR DISABLED.

Towed into Queenstown with a Broken Shaft.

QUEENSTOWN, Oct. 25.—The British steamer Enskar, Capt. Kneebone, which sailed from Philadelphia on Oct. 4, bound for London and Swansea, and for the coast of Ireland, was disabled and has been towed to this port, with her shaft broken, by the steamer Migard from Norfolk.

DYNAMITE SCARE IN PARIS.

Report that Reds Mean to Blow Up the Chamber of Deputies.

PARIS, Oct. 25.—The Matin states that information was recently received at the Prefecture of Police saying that the anarchists are preparing for a fresh outrage.

It is said that three companions have resolved to come to Paris from three points, Poissy, Lille and Lyons, for the purpose of blowing up the Chamber of Deputies.

NO INTERNATIONAL RATING.

English Yachtmen to Let the Subject Alone for This Year.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Oct. 25.—The Yacht Racing Association met yesterday and decided not to attempt to arrange an international rating race.

A resolution was adopted in favor of amending the existing rating rule next Spring, to go into operation in 1896.

REBELLIOUS HALAHINAS DEFEATED.

TANGIER, Morocco, Oct. 25.—It is announced that Moulay Amin, who was ordered by the Sultan to go to Meilla with a force to delimit the Spanish and Moorish frontier, which has hitherto been prevented by the Riff tribesmen, has inflicted a crushing defeat upon the rebellious Halahinas.

DRIVEN TO SUICIDE BY PAIN.

Aged Josef Kurris Could Bear His Sufferings No Longer.

Josef Kurris, a musician, seventy-three years old, suffering from a complication of diseases, committed suicide about 7 o'clock today in his room at 20 East Seventeenth street by shooting himself in the right temple with a .38-calibre revolver.

The aged man had been suffering for several weeks from Bright's disease, and was in a state of great distress. He had been in the hospital for some time, and was being treated by Dr. J. H. Jorgensen, with whom he boarded, but he could not stand the pain much longer and some day would kill himself.

This morning he sent Mrs. Jorgensen for some milk. As soon as she left the house, he got out of bed and blew his brains out. When the landlady returned he was lying on the bed dead.

Kurris played the bass viol, and was a member of the Musical Mutual Protective Union.

Mrs. Jorgensen called in a policeman to remove the body, and it was found that the man had committed suicide.

Among the dead man's effects were a number of small boxes, and a letter which had been addressed to a woman named Mrs. Jorgensen. It was found that the man had been suffering from a complication of diseases, and was in a state of great distress.

He had been in the hospital for some time, and was being treated by Dr. J. H. Jorgensen, with whom he boarded, but he could not stand the pain much longer and some day would kill himself.

This morning he sent Mrs. Jorgensen for some milk. As soon as she left the house, he got out of bed and blew his brains out. When the landlady returned he was lying on the bed dead.

Kurris played the bass viol, and was a member of the Musical Mutual Protective Union.

Mrs. Jorgensen called in a policeman to remove the body, and it was found that the man had committed suicide.

Among the dead man's effects were a number of small boxes, and a letter which had been addressed to a woman named Mrs. Jorgensen. It was found that the man had been suffering from a complication of diseases, and was in a state of great distress.

HER BODY UNCLAIMED.

Identity of the Third Avenue Suicide Not Yet Established.

The body of the unknown woman who swallowed several ounces of carbolic acid last night, on Third Avenue, near One Hundred and Thirty-sixth street, and died in an ambulance on her way to Harlem Hospital, still lies in the Harlem Morgue unclaimed.

Up to a late hour this morning no one had called to see the body or offer any clue to the identity of the woman. She was about thirty-five years old, five feet six inches tall and weighed about one hundred and forty-five pounds. She had dark-brown hair, which was turned up near the temples.

She was poorly dressed in a pink-dot waist and a skirt. She was not known to the neighborhood where she took the poison.

CARROLL'S OUT OF IT.

He Has Assigned His Interest in the Staten Island Ferry.

Comptroller Fitch Says the Papers Will Be Signed To-Day.

A Standard Oil Magnate Is Said to Be Interested.

Howard Carroll no longer figures as the holder of the franchise of the ferry between this city and Staten Island.

To be more exact, he will pose as the holder of that franchise until Comptroller Fitch assigns the lease to the New York Harbor and Staten Island Ferry Company, which is only a matter of a few hours.

Comptroller Fitch told an "Evening World" reporter to-day that Howard Carroll had requested that the lease be assigned to the above named company.

Mr. Fitch said that the assignment had been drawn up and submitted to the Corporation Counsel for approval. The latter signed the document, and the Comptroller said he believed it had been sent back to him. He would sign it some time to-day and thus complete the formal transfer.

The assignment leaves matters just where they were when the lease was sold in at last. Howard Carroll, it is said, has no further interest in the ferry.

The New York Harbor and Staten Island Ferry Company was incorporated in Albany two weeks ago with a capital of $1,000,000. The incorporators are Henry H. Rogers, President of the National Trust Company, and a member of the Standard Oil Company, and Samuel Thomas, a director of the Metropolitan Traction Company, and Samuel Thomas, a director of the Metropolitan Traction Company.

The assignment of the lease was made with the full approval of Carroll's bondsmen, John and William Carroll, and Samuel Thomas. These gentlemen also go on the bonds of the new holders of the franchise.

Whether the new company will take possession of the New York Harbor and Staten Island Ferry Company next Monday, as hinted at, or whether it will be delayed, is not known. The company is expected to take possession of the ferry between this city and Staten Island.

FATAL STREET FIGHT.

Aged and Wealthy William Cash Defended His Pocketbook.

Received Injuries from Which He Died in Seney Hospital.

His Assaulters Were Set Free and Are Now at Large.

William Cash died in Seney Hospital yesterday afternoon, the result of injuries sustained in a street fight in the city. He was a wealthy man, and was known to the police.

Mr. Cash was seventy-one years old and a retired business man of considerable wealth. He lived at 467 Quincy street, Brooklyn.

According to the story told by the police to-day, Mr. Cash was having his shoes polished by James Martino, on the corner of Lexington and Sumner avenues, last Saturday afternoon.

While the operation was in progress two young men, George Freeman, of 46 Georgia avenue, and George Meyer, of 10 Sumner avenue, emerged from a neighboring saloon, and dodging across the street, approached the bootblack from the rear. They grabbed his coat and pulled him off his feet, and before he could recover himself they had taken his pocketbook and were running away.

When Cash's shoes were polished he passed for a moment to purchase some cigars from Martino. While he was engaged Freeman and Meyer reappeared and renewed the attack on Martino.

Martino defended himself, and during the scuffle Cash, who tried to assist him, was knocked down. His right hip was broken, and he was hurt internally. He was removed to Seney Hospital.

Freeman and Meyer were arrested, and they were fined $10 each, which was eventually paid. Yesterday Cash died in the hospital, and to-day Coroner Creamer has charge of the case.

Freeman and Meyer are at large, and up to a late hour this afternoon the police had failed to locate them.

LAWYER O'NEILL WARNED.

Commissioner Shields Took Exception to His Behavior.

“You will behave yourself and conduct the case properly, or I will have you put out of the room,” said United States Commissioner Shields to-day to Attorney W. Lane O'Neill, during an examination as to Lee Yuen's right to land in the United States.

A sturdy deputy United States marshal, who was with him, was called upon by the Commissioner to remove O'Neill from the room. O'Neill refused to go, and the marshal was obliged to use force to remove him.

“You will behave yourself and conduct the case properly, or I will have you put out of the room,” said United States Commissioner Shields to-day to Attorney W. Lane O'Neill, during an examination as to Lee Yuen's right to land in the United States.

A sturdy deputy United States marshal, who was with him, was called upon by the Commissioner to remove O'Neill from the room. O'Neill refused to go, and the marshal was obliged to use force to remove him.

DE SHAYS STOLE NO MONEY.

Now at Home Recovering from His Colossal of a Jag.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Oct. 25.—William D. De Shays, at last accounts, was sleeping off the effects of his prolonged stay at his home at 15 Maple street, in this city. When he arrived here, shortly after midnight yesterday morning, after having been missing since Oct. 6 last, everybody expected that he would be arrested, for in New York he had started on a “jag” and had been seen in the city.

De Shays was a wealthy man, and was known to the police. He was a member of the New York State Bar, and was a prominent lawyer.

He was arrested in New York, and was held in custody for some time. He was then released, and he was seen in the city.

De Shays was a wealthy man, and was known to the police. He was a member of the New York State Bar, and was a prominent lawyer.

He was arrested in New York, and was held in custody for some time. He was then released, and he was seen in the city.

LITTLE MAN, BIG JAG.

Dog-Face Dwarf Sent to Jail for Intoxication.

Mayo Lopez, fifty years old, the famous freak, known as “Dog-Face,” was sent to the island for ten days for intoxication.

A year ago, while intoxicated, he fell into a sewer at Twenty-second street, and was rescued by a police officer. He was then sent to the hospital, and he was released.

De Shays was a wealthy man, and was known to the police. He was a member of the New York State Bar, and was a prominent lawyer.

He was arrested in New York, and was held in custody for some time. He was then released, and he was seen in the city.

LAST EDITION.

MR. SHEEHAN GETS ANGRY.

Tells Investigator Goff He'll “Take Care He Doesn't Hang Himself.”

THOSE L. I. CITY CONTRACTS.

Praises Inspector Williams, but Denies that His Influence Helped Him.

HIS BROTHER ALSO PRESENT.

The Lieutenant-Governor an Interested and Indignant Spectator at the Lexow Inquiry.

Yesterday's experience showed that the accommodations for the Lexow Committee were so insufficient in Part III. of the Superior Court that the headquarters of the investigators were removed this morning over into the larger room of Part I., where the earlier sessions of the Committee were held.

As usual, the Senators were half an hour late, and Police Commissioner John C. Sheehan, who was to be the star witness for the day, was also behind time, for he did not make his appearance till nearly 11 o'clock.

After the preliminary round with Mr. Goff last evening the Commissioner had evidently lost a good deal of his aplomb, and this morning he seemed to wear a look of apprehensiveness as if he anticipated “another hot skirmish” with the Chief Investigator as soon as the latter should reopen fire with his big guns.

A story was in circulation this morning, to the effect that Mr. Zella Williams, whose affair with the Gould family and the mysterious check for $50,000, which was stopped by George Gould, was a recent sensation, had something startling and important to tell the Lexow Committee.

It was intimated that a high police official was implicated in the hush-up of this affair, and that he had received a large pecuniary compensation for his services, and that Zella was willing to tell all she knew about the matter, which led to the withdrawal of her name.

It was even said that she had had several interviews with the counsel for the Committee, and that she was willing to appear as a witness had been arranged.

“I have nothing about the matter,” said Mr. Moss this morning, “and I do not believe that Mr. Zella has anything to tell. I am not a witness, and I do not know of any consultation between her and the counsel for the Senate Committee.”

“I have heard, however, that she was going to tell the truth,” said Mr. Zella, “and I am willing to tell all I know about the matter. I am willing to tell all I know about the matter. I am willing to tell all I know about the matter.”

“I am willing to tell all I know about the matter,” said Mr. Zella, “and I am willing to tell all I know about the matter. I am willing to tell all I know about the matter. I am willing to tell all I know about the matter.”

“I am willing to tell all I know about the matter,” said Mr. Zella, “and I am willing to tell all I know about the matter. I am willing to tell all I know about the matter. I am willing to tell all I know about the matter.”

LAST EDITION.

MR. SHEEHAN GETS ANGRY.

Tells Investigator Goff He'll “Take Care He Doesn't Hang Himself.”

THOSE L. I. CITY CONTRACTS.

Praises Inspector Williams, but Denies that His Influence Helped Him.

HIS BROTHER ALSO PRESENT.

The Lieutenant-Governor an Interested and Indignant Spectator at the Lexow Inquiry.

Yesterday's experience showed that the accommodations for the Lexow Committee were so insufficient in Part III. of the Superior Court that the headquarters of the investigators were removed this morning over into the larger room of Part I., where the earlier sessions of the Committee were held.

As usual, the Senators were half an hour late, and Police Commissioner John C. Sheehan, who was to be the star witness for the day, was also behind time, for he did not make his appearance till nearly 11 o'clock.

After the preliminary round with Mr. Goff last evening the Commissioner had evidently lost a good deal of his aplomb, and this morning he seemed to wear a look of apprehensiveness as if he anticipated “another hot skirmish” with the Chief Investigator as soon as the latter should reopen fire with his big guns.

A story was in circulation this morning, to the effect that Mr. Zella Williams, whose affair with the Gould family and the mysterious check for $50,000, which was stopped by George Gould, was a recent sensation, had something startling and important to tell the Lexow Committee.

It was intimated that a high police official was implicated in the hush-up of this affair, and that he had received a large pecuniary compensation for his services, and that Zella was willing to tell all she knew about the matter, which led to the withdrawal of her name.

It was even said that she had had several interviews with the counsel for the Committee, and that she was willing to appear as a witness had been arranged.

“I have nothing about the matter,” said Mr. Moss this morning, “and I do not believe that Mr. Zella has anything to tell. I am not a witness, and I do not know of any consultation between her and the counsel for the Senate Committee.”

“I have heard, however, that she was going to tell the truth,” said Mr. Zella, “and I am willing to tell all I know about the matter. I am willing to tell all I know about the matter. I am willing to tell all I know about the matter.”

“I am willing to tell all I know about the matter,” said Mr. Zella, “and I am willing to tell all I know about the matter. I am willing to tell all I know about the matter. I am willing to tell all I know about the matter.”

“I am willing to tell all I know about the matter,” said Mr. Zella, “and I am willing to tell all I know about the matter. I am willing to tell all I know about the matter. I am willing to tell all I know about the matter.”

WEATHER FORECAST.

The weather forecast for the thirty-six hours ending at 4 P. M. is as follows: General fair to-day, followed by increasing clouds, rain and fog on Saturday; slight change to clear, mainly sunny.

The following record shows the change in the temperature during the morning hours, as indicated by the thermometer at Perry's Pharmacy: 4 A. M., 45; 5 A. M., 45; 6 A. M., 45; 7 A. M., 45; 8 A. M., 45; 9 A. M., 45; 10 A. M., 45; 11 A. M., 45; 12 M., 45; 1 P. M., 45; 2 P. M., 45; 3 P. M., 45; 4 P. M., 45.

GOERDELER SEES HACKETT.

The Crank Denounces Cleveland and Has a Big Political Scheme.

There was an atmosphere of more than customary cheerfulness about the Republican State headquarters in the Fifth Avenue Theatre this morning. Every one was joking with everybody else, and President Cleveland and Senator Hill seemed to be the provocation for the general merriment.

Ex-President Harrison, who was seen as he was leaving the hotel a few minutes before 10 o'clock, refused to give an opinion on the subject.

“I am not at all interested,” he said, “beyond that attached to the affairs of any citizen.”

Ex-President Harrison returned to the Fifth Avenue Hotel at 12:50 o'clock. As he was about to enter the State headquarters, he was stopped by Gen. Joseph Hawley, ex-Governor of Connecticut, with whom he conversed for a few minutes.

At that time Crank Goerdeler, who called on President Cleveland yesterday, was in Republican headquarters harranguing Chairman Hackett.

Goerdeler said the Democratic administration was fearfully corrupt, and that Cleveland was as bad as Emperor William of Germany. He wanted to consult with Mr. Hackett with a view to swinging the German vote of the State into the Republican ranks. Mr. Hackett told Goerdeler he was very busy, and asked him to call some other day.

SHUT OUT OF THE DISTRICT.

Washington Authorities Bar the Commercial Alliance Co.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Formal notice was ordered on Wednesday by the Commissioners to be served on the Commercial Alliance Life Insurance Company, of New York, of the revocation of its license to conduct the insurance business in the District of Columbia.

This action is taken upon the showing of the affidavits of the Company by Supt. Pierce, of New York.

EUGENE OUDIN NO BETTER.

The Singer Has Been Unconscious Since Last Saturday.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Oct. 25.—Eugene Oudin, the operatic singer, who was announced in these despatches on Monday last to be suffering from paralysis, is no better.

He has been unconscious since Saturday last, when he was chatting with some friends at the Richter concert, he was suddenly stricken.

THE AMER ALIVE AND ACTIVE.

(By Associated Press.)
CALCUTTA, Oct. 25.—Nodzu has been received at Simla, dated Oct. 25, from Calcutta, saying that the Amer of Afghanistan was attending to business as usual.

Do you read the Sunday World? You read the Evening World!

DRIVEN TO SUICIDE BY PAIN.

Aged Josef Kurris Could Bear His Sufferings No Longer.

Josef Kurris, a musician, seventy-three years old, suffering from a complication of diseases, committed suicide about 7 o'clock today in his room at 20 East Seventeenth street by shooting himself in the right temple with a .38-calibre revolver.

The aged man had been suffering for several weeks from Bright's disease, and was in a state of great distress. He had been in the hospital for some time, and was being treated by Dr. J. H. Jorgensen, with whom he boarded, but he could not stand the pain much longer and some day would kill himself.

This morning he sent Mrs. Jorgensen for some milk. As soon as she left the house, he got out of bed and blew his brains out. When the landlady returned he was lying on the bed dead.

Kurris played the bass viol, and was a member of the Musical Mutual Protective Union.

Mrs. Jorgensen called in a policeman to remove the body, and it was found that the man had committed suicide.

Among the dead man's effects were a number of small boxes, and a letter which had been addressed to a woman named Mrs. Jorgensen. It was found that the man had been suffering from a complication of diseases, and was in a state of great distress.

DRIVEN TO SUICIDE BY PAIN.

Aged Josef Kurris Could Bear His Sufferings No Longer.

Josef Kurris, a musician, seventy-three years old, suffering from a complication of diseases, committed suicide about 7 o'clock today in his room at 20 East Seventeenth street by shooting himself in the right temple with a .38-calibre revolver.

The aged man had been suffering for several weeks from Bright's disease, and was in a state of great distress. He had been in the hospital for some time, and was being treated by Dr. J. H. Jorgensen, with whom he boarded, but he could not stand the pain much longer and some day would kill himself.

This morning he sent Mrs. Jorgensen for some milk. As soon as she left the house, he got out of bed and blew his brains out. When the landlady returned he was lying on the bed dead.

Kurris played the bass viol, and was a member of the Musical Mutual Protective Union.

Mrs. Jorgensen called in a policeman to remove the body, and it was found that the man had committed suicide.

Among the dead man's effects were a number of small boxes, and a letter which had been addressed to a woman named Mrs. Jorgensen. It was found that the man had been suffering from a complication of diseases, and was in a state of great distress.

DRIVEN TO SUICIDE BY PAIN.

Aged Josef Kurris Could Bear His Sufferings No Longer.

Josef Kurris, a musician, seventy-three years old, suffering from a complication of diseases, committed suicide about 7 o'clock today in his room at 20 East Seventeenth street by shooting himself in the right temple with a .38-calibre revolver.

The aged man had been suffering for several weeks from Bright's disease, and was in a state of great distress. He had been in the hospital for some time, and was being treated by Dr. J. H. Jorgensen, with whom he boarded, but he could not stand the pain much longer and some day would kill himself.

This morning he sent Mrs. Jorgensen for some milk. As soon as she left the house, he got out of bed and blew his brains out. When the landlady returned he was lying on the bed dead.

Kurris played the bass viol, and was a member of the Musical Mutual Protective Union.

Mrs. Jorgensen called in a policeman to remove the body, and it was found that the man had committed suicide.

Among the dead man's effects were a number of small boxes, and a letter which had been addressed to a woman named Mrs. Jorgensen. It was found that the man had been suffering from a complication of diseases, and was in a state of great distress.